

Germany:

Start in Germany in Vetschau (where Matthias' parents live), near Cottbus. Already heavy rainfalls when we started. These rainfalls accompanied us for almost two weeks. Most of the time we were building up and striking down a tent in pouring rain. This is definitively not a good start but makes you stronger.

